About the Event

On Saturday night, February 9, at 7:30 p.m., famed international artist Michael Israel will perform a live 'ART IN CONCERT' show at the Scottish Rite Center auditorium. The artist will be performing a number of 6-foot by 4-foot artworks onstage, including one of his signature artworks, "Hero" which depicts a firefighter rescuing a young child.

The creation of the live artworks promises to bring the crowd to their feet, cheering, applauding, and at times, giving in to the flow of emotional tears. A performance video of "Hero" currently available on YouTube has been viewed by nearly 6.5 million fans and resulted in numerous invitations by First Responder related groups around the country. Michael's "Hero" painting is quickly becoming an artwork with a potential billion dollar impact, inspiring a national tour to benefit Burn Camps, Burn Foundations and local First Responder related charities.

Following Michael's performance, a live auction of the performed artworks will be conducted to raise funds for the Northeast Indiana Burn Council and the Public Safety Foundation of Northeast Indiana.
